Website Privacy Policy

General Information

The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund respects the privacy of every individual who visits our websites. This Privacy Policy outlines the information The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund may collect and how we may use that information.

The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund will not use or disclose any personal information provided to us without consent except as described in this privacy policy, or as required by law.

This policy may be changed or updated from time to time.

Personal Information / Third-Party Suppliers and Service Providers

The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund uses its best efforts to respect the privacy of its online visitors. On our site, we do not collect personally identifiable information from individuals unless they provide it to us voluntarily and knowingly. This information is used solely by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund for internal purposes or for the purposes of the product or service for which the information was disclosed. In general, we do not require you to register or provide information to us in order to view our site, although registration may be required for certain products or services (such as posting an entry to the Officer Roll Call).

We may also use third party suppliers and service providers to fulfill the products and services offered on our site and make personal information available to them to the extent necessary for them to provide services to us (for example, to process a credit card payment or ship you a product you ordered). The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund requires its vendors to maintain the confidentiality and security of Fund information to which they are provided access and restricts the vendors from using the information in any way not expressly authorized by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund.

How We Use "Cookies"

When you visit our website we may store some information on your computer. This information will be in the form of a "Cookie" or similar file and can help us in many ways. For example, Cookies allow us to tailor a website to better match your interests and preferences. With most Internet Browsers, you can erase Cookies from your computer hard drive, block all Cookies or receive a warning before a Cookie is stored. Please refer to your Browser instructions or help screen to learn more about these functions.

However, it is important to understand that "Cookies" must be turned on if you are ordering from our online Store, in order for the process to operate correctly. You will not be able to register and access your online Account without enabling Cookies.*

Data Security

The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund makes every reasonable effort to ensure that all of the transactions that occur on our Website are secure. All credit card numbers submitted to the site are encrypted using "Secure Socket Layer" (SSL) encryption. SSL technology is an industrial standard for protected sensitive information as it is transmitted over the Internet.

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and administrative procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.
